

SCOSCHE® Industries Announces Collaboration with ProClip® USA To Offer Direct Fit Magnetic and Wireless Charging Phone Mounts

Oxnard, Calif. – (February 25, 2020) SCOSCHE – (pronounced skōsh/skohsh) Industries, innovators of award-winning consumer technology and accessories is proud to collaborate with ProClip USA to deliver vehicle-specific, high-quality magnetic and wireless charging smartphone mounting options.

Scosche's multi-award winning MagicMount™ magnetic mounting solutions provide a high quality solution to quickly, conveniently and securely hold devices for safer driving. Through this collaboration Scosche will initially offer three mounting head options that can be paired with the direct fit ProClip vehicle mounts, for a wide selection of vehicles. These three options are: the MagicMount Charge, the MagicMount Pro XL Surface, and the universal grip Qi-certified wireless fast charging mount.

ProClip (USA) vehicle mounts are custom fit to the exact make, model and year of a vehicle. Their vehicle specific mounts easily snap into the seams of a vehicle's dashboard and grip the dash panels, providing a solid and secure fit. They're easy to install and don't require any drilling or professional installation. Once installed they provide a sturdy mounting platform for a device holder.

“We’re excited about our collaboration with ProClip and the direct fit mount line. We are no strangers to vehicle specific mounting applications for stereo kits. So having a vehicle specific phone mount line that is built with proper fit, finish, and function is vital. With ProClip and Scosche we offer the best of both solutions.”

– Kas Alves, Co-President, Scosche Industries

“We’re thrilled to partner up with the team at Scosche to offer a high-quality wireless charging phone mounting solution. Their dedication and innovation for in-vehicle electronics continues to push the industry forward. Pairing their technology in wireless charging with the quality of ProClips custom vehicle mounts is a natural fit.”

– Don Rankin, COO and CMO, ProClip USA, Inc.
