

Scosche® Industries Announces Essential Accessories For The New Apple® Watch Series 6, Watch SE, 8th Generation iPad® and iPad Air

Oxnard, CA – September 15, 2020) SCOSCHE – (pronounced skōsh/skohsh) Industries, a leading innovator of award-winning consumer technology and accessories proudly presents their range of accessories, that are in stock and shipping now, to charge, organize, listen to and generally complement the newly announced Apple devices.

The customizable BaseLynx™ Modular Charging System lets you configure your own system to organize, display, store and charge all your Apple devices including iPhones, iPads, AirPods charging cases and Apple Watch. The Watch module features an Apple MFi-certified magnetic charger to charge all series of Apple Watches.

BaseLynx Modular Charging System

BaseLynx modules are available with Qi certified wireless charging, 18W USB-C Power Delivery and USB-A 12W charging. With the modules connected, the whole system uses one power cable plugged into one power outlet, so there are no tangled wires. You can use the modules individually or connected. When you get a new device, just add a module. BaseLynx is the perfect solution for home, office, dorm, RV, or wherever there are people and their portable devices.

*The BaseLynx White Modular Charging System is available at Apple.com and at select Apple Stores worldwide. BaseLynx Black and all the accessories mentioned in this release are available at Scosche.com and at select retailers worldwide.

Scosche's 18W, USB-C Power Delivery (PD) PowerVolt mini fast charger and PowerVolt 36W USB-C PD (with dual 18W ports) charger for home and office, and 36W USB-C PD (with dual 18W ports) PowerVolt in-vehicle fast charger will charge your new iPad at home or on the road. They will also charge your iPhone 3X faster than with a standard charger. With their smart circuitry they are backwards compatible to charge older devices, as well as new ones, at their safest and fastest rate.

For your new iPad or iPad Air, our StrikeLine premium USB-certified USB-C to USB-C charge and sync cables support high speed charging and data transfer (10 Gbps) speeds, as well omni-flow (two-way) charging.

Scosche StrikeLine™ premium MFi-certified USB-C to Lightning® Power Delivery compatible charge and sync cables come in multiple convenient lengths ranging from 1ft. to 8ft.

You can charge your new Series 6 (and Series 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5)) Apple Watches at your home, office or even in your vehicle, with Scosche's Watch Charger, which features an easy to use StickGrip™ suction-cup base and works with an Apple magnetic charging cord (not included).

Following Apple's sustainability initiative, if you have USB-A cables you'd like to continue to use with your new devices, Scosche has you covered with compact USB-A to USB-C Adapters.
